2025 GMC Sierra 1500

THE GMC SIERRA. IT’S – THE TRUCK.

The 2025 GMC Sierra 1500 combines power, luxury, and advanced technology, making it a top contender in the full-size truck segment. With its bold design, featuring a prominent front grille and sleek LED headlights, the Sierra 1500 has a commanding presence on the road. Available in multiple trims, including the rugged AT4X and the luxurious Denali Ultimate, this truck caters to a wide range of drivers, from off-road enthusiasts to those seeking premium comfort and style.

Under the hood, the 2025 Sierra 1500 offers a variety of powerful engine options, including a 5.3L V8, a 6.2L V8, and the efficient 3.0L Duramax® Turbo-Diesel engine. With up to 420 horsepower and impressive towing capabilities of up to 13,000 pounds, the Sierra 1500 is built to handle tough jobs with ease. The truck’s advanced trailering technologies, such as the ProGrade™ Trailering System and up to 14 available camera views, ensure that towing is both safe and convenient.

Inside, the Sierra 1500 delivers a luxurious and tech-forward cabin designed for comfort and convenience. The truck features a 13.4-inch diagonal touchscreen infotainment system, along with a 12.3-inch digital driver information display. Wireless Apple CarPlay® and Android Auto™ are standard, while available features like a 15-inch Head-Up Display and Bose® premium audio system elevate the driving experience. Premium materials, such as open-pore wood and full-grain leather, especially in the Denali Ultimate trim, make the interior as refined as it is functional.

Safety and driver assistance are key highlights of the 2025 GMC Sierra 1500. With standard features like forward collision alert, automatic emergency braking, and lane keep assist, the Sierra offers peace of mind on the road. Additionally, GMC’s Super Cruise™ hands-free driving technology is available on certain trims, allowing for a more relaxed driving experience on compatible highways. With its blend of performance, luxury, and innovation, the 2025 Sierra 1500 is a versatile truck that excels both on and off the road.
