2018 Honda Civic Sedan

NEW TO CANADA? WE HAVE AN APPROVAL WAITING FOR YOU!

The 2018 Honda Civic Sedan LX is a dependable compact car that delivers efficiency, comfort, and everyday practicality in a clean, modern design. Its sharp exterior styling and low, wide stance give it a sporty look that still feels refined and timeless.

Powered by a fuel efficient engine, the Civic LX offers a smooth and responsive drive that is ideal for commuting, errands, and highway travel. It handles confidently with precise steering and a comfortable ride, making it easy to drive in both city traffic and open road conditions.

Inside, the cabin is well designed with quality materials and a layout focused on simplicity and function. The seating is supportive and comfortable, with plenty of space for both front and rear passengers. The trunk offers generous cargo room for groceries, luggage, or daily essentials, making it a practical choice for a wide range of lifestyles.

Technology features include a user friendly touchscreen display with Bluetooth connectivity, allowing you to make calls, stream music, and stay connected on the go. Steering wheel mounted controls add convenience, helping you stay focused while driving.

Honda's reputation for reliability and safety is built into every Civic. The 2018 model includes stability control, advanced airbag systems, and a rearview camera to help support confidence behind the wheel.

The 2018 Honda Civic Sedan LX is a smart and efficient choice for drivers who want long lasting value, low running costs, and a comfortable driving experience in a well engineered sedan. Book your test drive with Bannister GP Honda today!
