2024 GMC Sierra 1500

Check out this 2024 GMC Sierra 1500 Elevation Crew Cab Standard Box 4WD finished in black — a bold and capable full-size truck that combines diesel efficiency, modern technology, and aggressive styling into one impressive package. With one owner and the sought-after 3.0L Duramax Diesel, this Sierra Elevation is built for BC drivers who want strong towing capability, excellent fuel economy, and standout road presence.

Powered by the 3.0L Duramax Diesel, this Sierra delivers impressive torque, smooth highway performance, and outstanding efficiency, making it an excellent choice for towing trailers, hauling equipment, or tackling long-distance road trips across British Columbia. Paired with 4-Wheel Drive, it provides confident traction and capability through changing weather conditions, mountain passes, and backcountry roads.

The Elevation trim gives this Sierra a sporty and aggressive appearance with body-colour bumpers, dark exterior accents, bold wheel design, and a commanding stance that looks right at home on city streets or remote backroads. Finished in black, it has a clean and powerful presence that stands out wherever it goes.

Inside, the spacious Crew Cab cabin offers exceptional comfort and technology, featuring heated front seats, heated steering wheel, large touchscreen infotainment system, Apple CarPlay, Android Auto, remote start, dual-zone climate control, and advanced safety technologies designed to keep you comfortable and connected on every drive.

The versatile Standard Box provides excellent cargo capacity for tools, camping gear, trailers, or outdoor equipment, making this truck ready for both work and adventure.

This 2024 GMC Sierra 1500 Elevation Crew Cab Standard Box 4WD has undergone a comprehensive 150-POINT INSPECTION by our certified technicians for added confidence and peace of mind.
