2022 GMC Sierra 3500HD

Built to handle tough jobs and long days, the 2022 GMC Sierra 3500HD SLE delivers outstanding capability with a refined, comfortable driving experience. Its powerful heavy-duty engine and 4WD system give you the strength and traction needed for towing, hauling, and tackling demanding worksites.

The spacious Crew Cab offers room for everyone, while the Long Box provides maximum cargo capacity for tools, gear, or trailers. Inside, the SLE trim adds premium touches like a large GMC Infotainment System, Apple CarPlay/Android Auto, a rearview camera, and convenient steering-wheel-mounted controls to keep you connected and in command.

Advanced safety features and GMC's signature build quality give you confidence on every drive—whether you're on the highway, the jobsite, or towing your next load.

Durable, capable, and ready for work, the 2022 Sierra 3500HD SLE is the heavy-duty truck you can rely on.
