2018 Subaru WRX

The 2018 Subaru WRX is a vehicle built for drivers who truly enjoy being behind the wheel. Combining rally-inspired performance with everyday practicality, this WRX delivers an exciting driving experience while still offering the comfort and reliability you expect from a daily driver. Finished in a striking blue exterior and showing less than 63,000 kilometers, this well-kept example stands out as an exceptional opportunity for anyone looking for a performance car that has been driven sparingly and maintained with care.

From the moment you see it, the Subaru WRX makes a bold statement. Its aggressive stance, sculpted body lines, signature hood scoop, and distinctive front grille all hint at the performance waiting underneath the hood. The vibrant blue paint highlights the car's sporty character and ensures it turns heads wherever it goes. Functional aerodynamic styling, performance wheels, and the unmistakable WRX silhouette give this sedan a look that's both purposeful and iconic—clearly inspired by Subaru's long heritage in rally racing.

Inside the cabin, the WRX strikes a perfect balance between sportiness and everyday comfort. Supportive sport seats keep you comfortably in place during spirited drives while still providing excellent comfort for commuting or longer trips. The interior is thoughtfully designed with quality materials and a driver-focused layout that puts everything within easy reach. There's plenty of room for passengers, and the trunk offers practical storage space, making this performance sedan surprisingly versatile for daily life.

Technology and convenience features help keep every drive connected and enjoyable. A user-friendly infotainment system provides access to Bluetooth connectivity, smartphone integration, and a clear display for audio and vehicle information. Steering wheel-mounted controls allow you to manage key functions without taking your hands off the wheel, while available features like a rearview camera, climate control, and keyless entry make daily driving simple and convenient. It's the kind of technology that enhances your experience without distracting from the thrill of driving.

Performance is where this WRX truly shines. Under the hood is Subaru's legendary turbocharged 2.0-litre BOXER engine, delivering strong acceleration and impressive
